Washington State Patrol Equipment and Standards Section, Bi-Weekly Law Review

“Nonfunctioning Signal Lights”

When approaching traffic control signals that are temporarily without power, the intersection shall be treated as an all-way stop. When more than one vehicle is approaching an unlit intersection at approximately the same time, after stopping, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right, unless directed by a flagger, police officer, or firefighter to proceed.
